

Vita: Friederike Aschhoff

Since 04/2023 Research assistant at the Chair of Eastern European History at Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf, project assistance DSG exchange project with Prague.

03/2021 - 03/2023 Research assistant at the DSG exchange project with Prague at the Chair of Eastern European History, Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf

Since 01/2021 Freelancer at the Alter Schlachthof Place of Remembrance, Düsseldorf

10/2019 - 02/2020 and 10/2020 - 02/2021 Tutor for first-year history students at Heinrich Heine University, Düsseldorf

10/2018 - 02/2021 Student assistant at the Chair of Eastern European History at Heinrich-Heine-University, Düsseldorf

10/2016 - 03/2021 Bachelor's degree in History and Communication and Media Studies at Heinrich Heine University, Düsseldorf (2018: stay abroad at Charles University, Prague).

Research Focus:

- Jewish emigration in the first half of the 20th century.
- Jewish life in Düsseldorf and the surrounding area in the 20th century
- Northern Europe during the Second World War
- Biographical work in a historical context

Publications:

Biographical papers on the website of the Alter Schlachthof Düsseldorf place of remembrance (<https://biografien.erinnerungsort.hs-duesseldorf.de/persons/verfolgte-1>)

Magazine article in "LandesEcho" (<https://landesecho.cz/>), 04/2019 - 07/2019

Video: How do I actually do family biographical research? (<https://vimeo.com/731521246>), 07/2022

Podcast: Forgotten cemeteries in Masuria (<https://forgotten-cemeteries.eu/>), 05/2022

Teaching:

SoSe2023: Exercise - Tutorial, Shanghai or Holland? - On the Flight of Jewish Families from the German Reich after 1938